INFRASTRUCTURE AND ENERGY ALTERNATIVES, INC. APPOINTS VETERAN INDUSTRY LEADER MICHAEL STOECKER AS CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER

Indianapolis, IN - April 16, 2019 - Infrastructure and Energy Alternatives, Inc. (NASDAQ: IEA) (“IEA” or the “Company”), a leading infrastructure construction company with specialized energy and heavy civil expertise, today announced the appointment of Michael Stoecker as the Company’s first Chief Operating Officer, effective April 15, 2019.

Mr. Stoecker will bring nearly 35 years of construction industry leadership and operations experience to IEA. His responsibilities will include the oversight of the Company’s ongoing construction opportunities and the integration of its acquisitions.

Mr. Stoecker’s appointment helps strengthen IEA’s executive management team following a transformational year in 2018, during which the company became a much larger and more diversified engineering and construction services company. With the acquisitions of American Civil Constructors, Saiia, William Charles Construction and Ragnar Benson Construction, IEA gained licenses to operate across all 50 states and grew its workforce to more than 2,600 employees.

“Given our substantially greater scale, broader geographic reach and more extensive pipeline of new business opportunities, appointing a COO is a timely and strategic next step in executing our growth strategy,” said JP Roehm, IEA’s Chief Executive Officer. “We conducted an extensive search for a proven leader and industry expert who would embrace our culture and could make an immediate positive impact. I’m confident Mike will do just that. I look forward to working with Mike as we profitably grow IEA.”

Mr. Stoecker’s experience spans the petro-chemical, tunnel, mining, heavy civil, commercial, environmental and power delivery sectors. He spent the past 11 years serving in various executive roles for Kenny Construction Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of Granite Construction Incorporated (NYSE:GVA); he served as President the last four years. Prior to Kenny Construction, he spent seven years in various operations and executive roles with Alberici Group, Inc., where his responsibilities included executive oversight of four subsidiaries.

Mr. Stoecker graduated from Iowa State University with a B.S. degree in Construction Engineering and has a J.D. degree from Saint Louis University.
